It was Teddies Dress Up Day at Mundole Equestrian for the last show of the year. It was a busy day for judge, Pam Joyce, with big entries in several classes. Best Dressed prize winners were Jessica Davidson(8) The Skeleton Ballerina, Vicky Penman as A Fallen Angel, Ang Kirton with Red Devil Harvey, Susan Mackenzie as The Cromarty Bear. The busy show attracted many spectators who enthusiastically supported the day's events. With temperatures averaging 17 degrees it was a great end to the season.

Mundole Equestrian would like to thank all judges, writers, helpers, competitors, parents and spectators, who support our shows throughout the year.

Also Joanne, our caterer who has attended most events and Jen from Highland Theraplate, who came to let people and horses try her therapy. Grateful thanks to Moray Riding Club who help and very often stay on at the end of a show to help clear jumps away.

All shows this year have been run to help the charity DEC UK Ukraine Appeal. We hope our contributions will help towards a solution for all those who are resolutely trying to regain their country.
